The truth of Geometry Dash

14 1 3

Chapter 1 by mega hunter

You know how on the left of the screen the blocks go smaller then disappear? Then the opposite thing happens on the right? Well I believe because it's the apocalypse. It proves my point more in melt down and in geometrical dominator where there are monsters. The players is trying to get away and the end of the level is a safety zone

What do you think?

Chapter 2 by The Harlequeen

You know how in plants vs zombies, the plants seem to be protecting the house? What if there was a zombie apocalypse and the plants are protecting the last remaining humans?
